Located on the periphery of the historical city of Valletta and overlooking the Grand Harbour, the Mediterranean Conference Centre is a 16th Century building formerly known as the 'Sacra Infermeria' of the Order of St. John. The MCC, the largest Conference Centre on the Island of Malta, boasts a total of 10 halls and 9 syndicate rooms over an area of 7,000 sq. metres with a capacity ranging from 15 to 1,400. No matter what the size of the event being organised – from a small presentation to a large conference, a product launch or an exhibition, a convention or even a theatrical performance – the Mediterranean Conference Centre can cater for all your requirements.

MEETING ROOMS

The Mediterranean Conference Centre is Malta's largest conference venue. There are 7 meeting halls with a combined capacity for over 2,400 people. 5 rooms have permanent simultaneous interpretation facilities. A further 10 syndicate rooms can accommodate from 5 to 40 people. The Sacra Infermeria Hall within the Centre covers a total of 1,700 m²/18,292 sq. ft. and is 155 m/508 ft. in length. It can accommodate 100 exhibition stands of 9 m²/29.52 sq. ft. each. The La Valette Hall is the main Banqueting Hall at the Centre. This architectural gem, with its vaulted ceilings over such a sheer length, covers an area of 1,500 m²/16,140 sq. ft. and comfortably seats 900 guests for dinner. The entire Centre can handle up to 2,400 delegates for conferences and up to 4,000 people for cocktail receptions.

TOURISM

From a rich historical background, the Maltese islands enjoy a legacy of fascinating archeological and architectural monuments that can be enjoyed all year round thanks to a mild climate. Valletta is a 16th century city of mainly baroque palaces and stately homes built by the knights of Malta on a promontory in the grand harbour and surrounded by 7 m/200 ft. battlements.

ACCESS

Within walking distance from the city centre, the Mediterranean Conference Centre is easily reachable.
• 9 km/5.6 miles from the airport.
