The Megaron Athens International Conference Centre (MAICC) is one of the finest and most technologically advanced conference centres in Europe. An integral part of the Athens Concert Hall Organisation, whose facilities have been globally applauded since its opening in 1991, the international conference centre offers a stunning environment, exceptional aesthetics, cutting edge technology and unrivalled client service. With easy access by metro, bus or car, the centre is situated just minutes from the heart of a vibrant and modern city that was transformed to host the 2004 Olympic Games. The maximum total capacity of the Centre is 8,000 delegates.

MEETING ROOMS

The centre covers a total of 143,000 m² and is built to the highest aesthetic standards. The sweeping light-filled foyers throughout the facility are complimented by a number of outside spaces which can be used frequently by virtue of the excellent Athenian climate. The main auditoria offer not only prestigious aesthetics but also state of the art technology. There is also a fully circular hall for real flexibility. Spaces for exhibitions and banqueting are plentiful and varied, totalling 12,000 m² and there is a wide variety of smaller breakout rooms.

TOURISM

Athens is recognized as the birthplace of civilization. Transformed to host the 2004 Olympic Games, reminders of Greece's unsurpassed cultural heritage abound throughout the city. The most famous of these is the Parthenon, which dominates the Athenian landscape and is unsurpassed in its beauty, architectural splendour and historic importance.

The city's many classical remains can be discovered in the excellent museums, including the newly renovated National Archaeological Museum with its superb collection of Greek antiquities and the stunning new Acropolis Museum.
